Growing Old

Ought not to mean growing weak and feeble. It does not mean weakness or feebleness for those who eat with good appetite and sound digestion. It is of the utmost importance that cld people should retain the power to digest and assimilate food which is the sole source of physical strength. When age brings feebleness it is generally because of the failure to assimilate the nutrition contained in food.

failure to assimilate the nutrition contained in food.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food. It invigorates the liver and promotes general physical well being.

"It is with gratitude we acknowledge what Dr. Pierce's medicine has done for grandmother's good, in fact it has cured her," writes Miss Curric Ranker, of Perrysburg, Ohio. "She had doctored with several physicians but found no relief until Dr. Pierce advised her what to do. She has taken only three bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and is entirely well. She suffered with pain in kidneys, bladder and liver for ten years, and her lines were swelled with dropsy so bad she could hardly walk. My grandmother's name is Mrs. Caroline Hennien, her age is 71 years. I will gladly answer all letters of inquiry."

BRYAN'S ATTACK ON GORMAN. Democrats who read Mr. W. J. Bryan's attack on Senator Gorman in yesterday's Gazette were surprised to see him display an utter lack of gratitude for Mr. Gorman's part in the two presidential campaigns in which the Nebraskan was a candidate.

In 1896 and again in 1900 the democratic party in Maryland was confronted by difficulties and the local managers were absolutely without financial sid or sources of supply of cash. In both campaigns Mr. Gorman bore the burden of expense. Especially was this the case in 1900, when his individual check aggregated several thousand dollars.

When Mr. Bryan visited Baltimore during the last presidential campaign Mr. Gorman attended the meeting at Music Hall, at which Mr. Bryan was the chief speaker. After the meeting the two gentlemen adjourned to the Hotel Rennert, where they were in close conference for two hours, and where Mr Gorman offered any assistance within his power to help the cause. The Maryland leader would have taken a more prominent part in the campaign in its early stage, but he was not invited and hints were thrown out by men close to Mr. Bryan that the Marylander's activity, and especially his management of the Eastern campaign, as was suggested, would not be appreciated. Dur-ing the closing weeks of the contest Mr. Gorman's health was such that his physisian forbade an active part in the can-

Mr. Gorman' friends say that he contributed liberally to Mr. Bryan's campaign fund when he sought an election to the U. S. Senate from Nebraska. He was defeated by Mr. Thurston. Mr. Gorman on that occasion, as well as during the campaigns of 1896 and 1900, asked his friends to aid Mr. Byan a request to friends to aid Mr. Bryan, a request to which they most liberally responded. One portion of Mr. Bryan's statement relative to Mr. Gorman recalls a bit of unpublished history. It is the charge that Mr. Gorman was instrumental in consumption inherit it. A slight cold, a tickling or hacking cough is the beginning, and after it has reached a certain advanced stage the grave.

consumption inherit it. A slight cold, a tickling or hacking cough is the Wilson tariff bill, an emasculating the Wilson tariff bill, an elleged act which gave rise to President Cleveland's famous "treason" and 'pelf' letter. Mr. Got an remained silent under the charges because had he explained his attitude on the Wilson bill he would there is no ending except the grave.

Any case of consumption that is curable: Any case of consumption that is curable; that is, any one having consumption whose family or friends still hold on to a ray of hope, may take comfort in the knowledge of the fact that One Minute Cough Cure will give instant relief and finally cure.

This famous remedy does not pass immediately into the stomach, but lineers long in the throat, chest and hines, producing the following results:

(1) Relieves the cough.

(2) Makes the breathing easy.

(3) Cits out the hilbiers.

(4) Draws out the inflammation.

(5) Kills the germs (microbes) of disease.

(6) Strengthens the mucous membranes.

(7) Clears the head.

(8) Relieves the cough.

(9) Removes every cause of the cough and the strain on the lungs.

(10) Enables the lungs to contribute pure lifegiving and life-sustaining coxygan to the blood. Cures Croup and all Cough, Lung and Bronchail Affections.

GONSUMPTION CURED. low an enactment of the schedules.

To avoid such a party disaster Mr. Gorman and his democratic colleagues undertook a recision of the bills with view to avoiding the threatened deficit As careful as they were they did not avoid the rock. The bill as finally enacted did not produce enough revenue to meet the government's needs and a bond issue followed.

Mr. Gorman suffered the calumny that was heaped upon him rather than bring about a serious break in Mr. Cleveland's cabinet. He said some thing on the floor of the Senate which FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

did not please Mr. Cleveland. The speech was provoked by some unkind things which Mr. Cleveland in Baltimore had said about Mr. Gorman. When Mr. Gorman was seeking a re-election to the Senate in 1897, and when the burden of his campaign rested entirely upon his shoulders, his friends sought Mr. Gorman was seeking a re-election to the Senate in 1897, and when the burden of his campaign rested entirely upon his shoulders, his friends in Washington and in Baltimore had said about Mr. Gorman was seeking a re-election to the Senate in 1897, and when the burden of his campaign rested entirely upon his shoulders, his friends in Washington and in Baltimore had said about Mr. Gorman was seeking a re-election to the Senate in 1897, and when the burden of his campaign rested entirely upon his shoulders, his friends in Washington and in Baltimore had said about Mr. Gorman was seeking a re-election to the Senate in 1897, and when the burden of his campaign rested entirely upon his shoulders, his friends in Washington and in Baltimore had said about Mr. Gorman was seeking a re-election to the Senate in 1897, and when Mr. Cleveland. did not please Mr. Cleveland.
